

Course Outcome- Political Science

PS (1141) Methodology and Perspectives of Social Sciences. (Credits-4)

- CO1. Articulate the basic terminology and theories prevalent across disciplines.
- CO2. Understand qualitative and quantitative models within the social sciences.
- CO3. To learn to apply the methods and theories of social science to contemporary Issues.

(Hours of Instruction is 6)

PS (1241) Introduction to Political Science(Credits-4)

- CO1. Impart basic knowledge about various theories and concepts of Political Science Introduce the students Political Science and its basic concepts.
- CO2. Enable the students to identify various approaches to the study of Political Science Familiarize the students about the structure and functions of the organs of Government.

(Hours of Instruction is 6)

PS (1321) Informatics and Political Science (Credits-3)

- CO1. To update and expand basic informatics skills and attitudes relevant to the emerging knowledge society and to equip the students to effectively utilize the digital knowledge for the study of Political Science.

- CO2. Also to create awareness about socio-political issues and concerns in the use of digital technology.

(Hours of Instruction is 4)

PS (1341) Indian Constitution (Credits-4)

- CO1. Impart knowledge about the legal and ideological framework of the Indian Constitution.
- CO2. Create awareness about the political processes and the actual functioning of the political system.

(Hours of Instruction is 5)

PS (1441) Dynamics of Indian Political System (Credits-4)

- CO1. It helps the students to explore the actual working of the Indian Political system in a plural set up.
- CO2. Students got the unique opportunity to understand the characteristics of the Indian federal system.

(Hours of Instruction is 5)

PS (1442) Introduction to Comparative Politics (Credits-3)

- CO1. The intention is to highlight the theoretical evolution and approaches to the study of Comparative Politics.
- CO2. To impart skill to analyse in a comparative way political developments across world in the light of various theories.
- CO3. It helps the students to familiarize basic features about the constitutions of major political systems.

(Hours of Instruction is 4)

PS (1541) Public administration (Credits-4)

- CO1. The course is designed to inculcate a basic understanding of the fundamental principles of Public Administration.
- CO2. It create awareness about the basic pillars of Public Administration like Organisation, Personnel Administration, Financial Administration.

(Hours of Instruction is 5)

PS (1542) Ancient and Medieval Political Thought (Credits-4)

- CO1. To familiarize the ideas of ancient and medieval political thinkers.
- CO2. To build in the minds of students an overall outlook about political thought.

(Hours of Instruction is 4)

PS (1543) International Relations (Credits-2)

CO1. It seeks to equip the students with the basic concepts, theories, ideologies and approaches to the study of International Relations.

CO2. To familiarize the changing nature of power relations and understand about issues in global politics.

(Hours of Instruction is 3)

PS (1544) Research Methods in Political Science (Credits-4)

➤ Helps to familiarize the students with the research methods in Political Science.

➤ To enable for the practical use of students in their Project/Dissertation.

(Hours of Instruction is 4)

PS (1545) Human Rights in India (Credits-4)

CO1. Intended to highlight the concept of Human Rights, its evolution and importance in our society.

CO2. To make an understanding about various rights, including political, civil, social, economic and cultural rights.

(Hours of Instruction is 4)

Open Course. PS (1551.2) Human Rights in India (Credits-2)

CO1. Intended to highlight the concept of Human Rights, its evolution and importance in our society.

CO2. To make an understanding about various rights, including political, civil, social, economic and cultural rights.

(Hours of Instruction is 3)

PS (1641) Modern Political Thought (Credits-4)

CO1. The course is intended to provide a detailed understanding about modern political thought.

CO2. To equip the student to develop their own ideas about various political and social issues.

(Hours of Instruction is 5)

PS (1642) State and Society in Kerala (Credits-4)

CO1. Provide a comprehensive analysis of the socio-political structure of Kerala.

CO2. To familiarize the students with the society and state structure of Kerala.

CO3. To make a detailed analysis of the socio-political evolution of the state of Kerala.

(Hours of Instruction is 5)

PS (1643) Decentralisation and Participatory Democracy (Credits-4)

CO1. The course intends to provide a detailed understanding about democratic decentralization, participatory governance with emphasis on India and Kerala

CO2. To inculcate skills for capacity building activities in local self governing institutions.

(Hours of Instruction is 5)

PS (1644) New Social Movements (Credits-4)

CO1. The course intends to offer a broad perspective on the different developments in understanding the form of society, conflict within society and collective action as a means for social change

CO2. To familiarize contemporary social movements including movements of socially excluded people and to make the student understand the impact of globalization on social movements and civil society.

(Hours of Instruction is 5)

PS (1651.1) Globalisation and Political Systems (Credits-3)

CO1. Equip the students understand the impact of globalisation on different political systems with special emphasis on India.

CO2. To impart knowledge about the new global economic order.

CO3. Helps students to create awareness about the impact of globalization on the life of the people of India.

(Hours of Instruction is 2)

PS (1645) Project /Dissertation (Credits-4)

CO1. To develop an aptitude for research in Political Science

CO2. To inculcate proficiency to identify appropriate research topics and Presentation

(Hours of Instruction is 3)

PS (1131) Principles of Political Science (Credits-2)

CO1. The course intends to familiarize the students with the fundamental principles of Political Science.

CO2. To familiarize the students the major principles of Political science and its major concepts.

(Hours of Instruction is 3)

PS (1231) Introduction to Political Theory (Credits-3)

CO1. The course intends to impart the students with an orientation on Political theory.

CO2. To familiarize to the students major political ideologies.

CO3. To make aware about human rights party systems and the operations of pressure groups and its importance.

(Hours of Instruction is 3)

PS (1331) Public Administration(Credits-3)

CO1. The course is intended to create an understanding of the basic elements of Public Administration and equip the students with some theoretical understanding about Public Administration.

(Hours of Instruction is 3)

PS (1431) International Politics(Credits-3)

CO1. The course seeks to equip the students with the basic concepts, theories, ideologies, and approaches in the study of International Politics

CO2. To create awareness about major issues in global politics.

(Hours of Instruction is 3)